

Equifax Data Breach: What To Do

There are steps to take to help protect your information from being misused if breached.

- First, visit Equifax's website listed above.
- Click on the "Potential Impact" tab and enter your last name and last six digits of your Social Security number. Your Social Security is sensitive information, so make sure you're on a secure computer and an encrypted network connection any time you enter it. The site will tell you if you've been affected by this breach.
- Whether or not your information was exposed, U.S. consumers can get a year of free credit monitoring and other services. The site will give you a date when you can come back to enroll. Write down the date and come back to the site and click "Enroll" on that date. You have until November 21, 2017 to enroll.
- You also can access frequently asked questions at the site.
- Check your credit reports from Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion (free) by visiting the website: www.annualcreditreport.com. Accounts or activity that you do not recognize could indicate identity theft. To find out what to do, visit the website: www.IdentityTheft.gov.
