

*"Indestructible?
I don't think so."*

It's been awhile since my last memo and boy a lot has happened. First there was Christmas. Santa brought me this seemingly indestructible squeaky toy. I hate those squeakers! This toy had a shape of a large peppermint candy and had a huge squeaker. My family all took bets on how long it would take me to get the squeaker out. The big guy won – 1 ½ days. Harper was there as an observer although I let her pull out some of the stuffing.

"Less turkey next time."

Besides opening gifts, there was a ton of holiday food. What's better than eating and sleeping when you're not at work? That's me and Harper taking a nap with my step brother, Matthew, after a big holiday meal. Next time, I don't think we will eat as much turkey!

"The tennis ball is here somewhere."

Then there was the snow at work. I just love playing in the snow. I had so much fun playing in the mounds of snow in our parking lot. The real fun is burying a tennis ball in the snow pile, then digging it out creating this big hole that I can crawl into. Also, the big guy hits the tennis balls high into the sky and I have to find it after it hits the ground and disappears in the snow.

"I think the chipmunk is pulling on my nose."

Recently, I sniffed out a couple of chipmunks. They lived in an old dead tree. Their hole was too small for me to fit my head but I could smell them. Probably they have moved by now since I sniffed out their hideout. They may run but they can't hide from my nose. I will eventually find their new home as long as they stay on property.

"Are you sure they went out the back hole?"

"I thought the closing was at ten."

Hey, did you know that I don't have to work on Federal Holidays? Since I'm employed by a Federal Credit Union we get all Federal Holidays off. For example, I didn't have to work on Presidents' Day. That meant I could stay at home and get more treats and take more naps. However, I do have to work more hours the next day since we are open using the Monday schedule. That means the lobby opens from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and the drive thru stays open from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Finally, now that I am older, I have been training to assist in mortgage closings. I get to lay underneath the big conference table and if there are little people at the closing, I get to either play with them or have them pet me. It seems that I have a calming effect on everyone. No matter, everyone seems to leave happy about their new mortgage. I even get to walk them out the door and give them my business card. Just to let you know, I now have my own email address, morgan@doyfcu.com. So if you want to comment on my memos or just say hello, I promise I will reply to your email whenever possible. Until next time or until I receive your email remember: "to the world, you may be just one person/dog, but to one person/dog, you may be the world." Just ask the big guy.
